

Parent Four-Day School Week Survey Results

Recently, Hallsville families in preschool through twelfth grade completed a preliminary survey on the potential of a four-day school week calendar. A total of 2,418 guardians were contacted, with 944 of them having duplicate email addresses due to having multiple children in the district. A total of 1,385 emails were delivered and 586 completed the survey. Based on the results (summarized below), the district has begun the formation of a committee to further explore whether the option would be a good fit for the district.
